2011 Senior Representative Contract & Application

As a student representative of AFYP, you will receive free portrait sessions free (a value of up to $150) as well as a hardbound Personal Album (a value of up to $250) of approximately thirty prints of a variety of poses which you can show to all of your friends. You will also be given a set of Photo Business Cards that entitle your classmates to a 10% discount off their portrait orders. This is a great way to get people excited about their senior portraits in time for me to capture images of them in their favorite sports or extra-curricular activities! Only one female and one male from each school will be chosen to participate. Applications are due by February 26, 2010.

YOUR PHOTO SESSION

Your sessions will be fun experiences that are meant to show variety. We want to show as many styles as possible. Don't forget about your hobbies and interests both in and out of school. We are only limited by your creativity. Bring along your class ring, letter jacket, uniforms, etc. If you would like black and white or sepia images, be sure to bring clothing that is black, white, or high in contrast. We will be discussing all the details in your pre-shoot consultation. Please feel free to make suggestions about clothing selections, poses, and locations. If there is a particular look you would like to imitate, bring it along.

AFTER YOUR SESSION

I will call you about two weeks after your final session to schedule an appointment to pick up your Personal Album.

PROMOTION

Please show your Personal Album to everyone! Some of your friends will like certain styles, and some will prefer others. That is why variety is so important in your clothing for the shoot. As you show the book to your friends, freely pass out your business cards and ask them to consider AFYP for their senior portrait experience.

Tell them about the variety of photographs I can take of them, both indoors and outdoors and share with them ideas you've seen. You can even suggest that they have their portraits done in a certain style or with a particular prop. When you are asked about cost, just refer them to me – that's the good part! Stress the fact that you get what you pay for.

Remind them it is critical that they bring your photo business card with them when they come in for their session or pre-shoot consultation. No card = no credit! This is my way of knowing that you are doing a good job and evaluating the effectiveness of the student representative program.

TIPS FOR REPRESENTATIVES

1. When you know a friend has a session scheduled, suggest that they bring a friend along to share the experience.
2. Remind them that getting their pictures done early will earn them a significant discount on session fees and allow us more time to capture great images.

3. Talk to them about variety, posing, and props.
4. Tell them that my goal is to give them the best portrait they have ever had.
5. Tell them that I offer special promotions, such as free family portraits.
6. Remember that you can also hand out our photo business cards to friends from other schools!

BENEFITS OF REPRESENTING AFYP

1. A no-cost Designer Session (a $150 value).
2. A Personal Album (a $250 value)
